MOTION CARRIED

Old Business

A. Capital Projects

These projects were discussed on the tour of buildings.

Wagon Shop

The repairs to the Wagon Shop windows have been completed. After July 1 Loraine will schedule repairs for the north doors. Specifications for stripping and staining the building have been sent to Mark Stimac for review.

General Store

One bid for $45,000 was received to strip and stain the General Store. Vendors who made site visits but did not submit bids were contacted with a follow-up survey. Loraine is working with Purchasing to re-post the bid.

B. Programs

See attached reports.

C. Attendance

See attached reports.

D. Grants

Loraine will submit a grant application to the Kresge Foundation for operations support. The application is due July 12.

E. Collections

See attached reports.

New Business

A. Expansion Update: Presentation on preliminary site plan concepts

Loraine presented a power point presentation outlining the processes and progress of the site plan committee to date including preliminary site plan concepts. Staff and the architects will next schedule an informal review of the plans with the Planning Commission.

B. Troy Historical Society Liaison Report

The architects and Heritage Campaign committee toured the new LEED certified Kresge Foundation Headquarters.

Fund raisers scheduled for this summer include The Troy Traffic Jam (car show) and a Garden Party for 100 women organized by museum staff.

C. Reports and Communications

a. Staff

Loraine is exploring options for replacing Kathrin Jaeger.

City Council approved new pay scales for part time Museum Aids. The new wage range is $11/hr to $15.50/hr.

b. Visitor

None

c. Commission Members
